

Wine Tasting & Festival of Trees benefits Conifer's Chamber of Commerce

Written by Staff Editor on Tuesday, November 24 2015.

The Conifer Area Chamber of Commerce held its 15th annual Wine Tasting & Festival of Trees on Saturday, November 21st at Willow Ridge Manor in Morrison. In addition to the obvious, the event included decadent desserts, local cuisine, a silent auction and a wine pull. The primary sponsor was 1stBank.

Six wineries and one meadery made their products available for tasting. Wineries included Aspen Peak Cellars of Bailey, Creekside Cellars of Evergreen, Kingman Fine Colorado Wines of Denver, Spero Winery of Denver, Vino Passarelli of Lakewood, Wild Women Wine of Denver; Redstone Meadery of Boulder offered honey-based beverages.

Food was provided by Cabin Creek Smokehouse, Cutthroat Café, L'Cuisine of Evergreen & D-Rass Deli, The Abide Ride Colorado VooDoo Cuisine, Seasonally Yours and The Village Patisserie.

Twelve decorated trees were available for purchase through an auction process. 1stBank of Aspen Park, Augustana Care Elk Run, Evergreen Christian Outreach, Evergreen Newspapers, Gherity Construction Man LLC, MyMountainTown.com, Luna's Mandala, Macaroni Kid, Miche, R&R Roofing, Peaceworks, and State Farm Insurance: Nancy Staub decorated trees donated by Big R and Splintered Forest. Evergreen Christian Outreach offered tree delivery after the event.

Proceeds from the event go toward the Conifer Area Chamber of Commerce Scholarship Fund.
